AGENDA

1. Cemetery maintenance

Comm. Garman explained Lawrence Stiffey had resigned from his duties maintaining the cemetery and someone to replace him is needed immediately. He also said there was a definite need for someone to oversee the complete supervision. There was a lengthy discussion as to who the city could hire, and no one could come up with an immediate name. Mayor Jackson wondered if Lawrence Stiffey would be interested in the job as overall supervisor. The commissioners agreed it would be worth Mayor Jackson's time to talk with Lawrence and report back at the February meeting.

Comm. Garman wondered what was going to be done about the trees that needed trimming at the cemetery. After a discussion, it was agreed Comm. Garman would contact Jim McGuirk to see if REA would assist us in this matter.

With no further business to be presented a motion to adjourn was heard.
