

Special called city commission meeting - July 30, 1998 - 9:00 a.m. - City Hall

Mayor Gilley called the meeting to order with commissioners Lacy, Cooke, Hardy, Martin and Alexander Maxwell and Stan Reagan from City-County Planning Commission in attendance.

AGENDA

Second reading Ordinance #98-1 620.19-requiring mowing of grass and removal of weeds and bushes, and/or brush and fallen trees and limbs by city residents.

Mayor Gilley ask the two gentlemen from the City-County Planning Commission to address the meeting prior to the second reading of the above stated ordinance. Both of them were in agreement that the ordinance was not complete enough to satisfactorily meet the needs of the commission. They suggested adding a schedule of mowing fees, to be added to the owner's tax bills if the city had to have lots cleaned or mowed due to negligence on the owners part. They furnished the clerk examples of other ordinances that she could use in compiling a new ordinance. In view of this, the commission decided to veto the second reading of the above stated ordinance and wait for the new one. Comm. Cooke floored a motion to veto the second reading of ordinance #98-1 620.19, seconded by Comm. Martin. roll call and vote Cooke yes, Lacy yes, Martin yes, Gilley yes, Hardy yes.

With no further business to be presented, a motion to adjourn was heard.
