

Special called and media notified City Commission meeting - November 13, 1998 - 11:00 a.m.

Mayor Gilley called the meeting to order with commissioners Martin and Cooke in attendance.

Comm. Lacy was on vacation and Comm. Hardy absent but notified of the meeting. He explained the purpose of the meeting was to consider the bids for new city Christmas pole decorations. They had two bids to consider. The one bid from Dixie Decorations was the lowest but the decorations wouldn't be available until at least the 3rd or 4th of December, and the light company wanted to install them the week of Thanksgiving. The bid from Temple Display in the amount of $7,509.75 was accepted. Comm. Martin presented a motion the bid from Temple Display be accepted, seconded by Comm. Cooke. roll call and vote - Cooke yes, Martin yes, Gilley yes. Both bids are attached.

With no further business to be presented a motion to adjourn was heard.
